

INFOSHEET: Great Ideas for Celebrations

THE SKY IS THE LIMIT IN TERMS OF IDEAS THAT WOULD HELP YOU CELEBRATE SUCCESS ALONG THE WAY. HERE ARE TEN WHICH UNDOUBTEDLY WILL SPUR ON OTHERS. BE CREATIVE AND MOST IMPORTANTLY, HAVE FUN!

- Organize a potluck or scavenger hunt.
- Develop certificates of appreciation for the volunteers and have them presented by a senior official.
- Make note of contributions of volunteers at meetings, events, etc. Begin each meeting with some informal kudos.
- Present volunteers with small tokens of appreciation. Perhaps a local business would donate items for this purpose.
- Ask your community newspaper to consider doing a feature on a few of the volunteers.
- Post your successes to your local website or Facebook page.
- Create a community event to unveil or acknowledge something that has been accomplished.
- A handwritten note of appreciation is very meaningful.
- Create a virtual celebration port where individuals can share messages of accomplishment.
- Ask everyone for ideas for how they would like to celebrate the success and rotate the organization of such events within the team.
